Navy seals salary reddit

Just got the call this monday. If anyone is curious about the process, training, or really anything just ask away Former, technically. I got out fairly recently though, so if you're like me before I went in, and you want to know about the actual job, and not how many kills I have in Afghanistan (O) then ask away. Bear in mind, NAVSPECWAR is a big place with plenty of niche jobs, so I can't accurately comment on everything, but I probably will anyway. Looks like it's slowing down, but I'll check in daily. Feel free to send your questions. As far as I'm concerned...Edit: This... You better know this if you're planning on going in. Edit: Thanks for the gold. Easily the second best piece of gold recognition I've ever received. Edit: For another take on the job check out this and this thread. Page 22 2.3k comments 5 comments 36 comments Page 2 36 comments havokjournal.com/cultur...Page 2havokjournal.com/cultur... I have seen a few requests come up for a Navy SEAL IAMA. I didn't want to run one close to the Osama event for a variety of reasons. Some of this stuff I am going to keep fairly general as I don't really want anyone to know who I am. It is perfectly legal for me to do this IAMA but I would rather stay anonymous. I was a SEAL for between 8 and 10 years. I have been out for between 4 or 5 years. 9/11 occurred 2 to 4 years into my service. I was never at DEVGRU I am married and have kids. In keeping with tradition they are all girls. I am using a throwaway account for this, but I have been on Reddit for quite some time. The IAMA section on Reddit is my favorite by far and I am exited to have a chance to contribute to the community here. Types of questions I will not answer: Anything that is classified, deals with DEVGRU (ST6), specifics about Tactics Techniques and Procedures (TTP), details about technology used, details about anything that happens overseas. Sorry to put so many limits on this, I hope there can still be a good discussion. I will be on all day while I work (yes I have to work on a Sunday, the corporate world is tough). Proof has been sent to the mods. Obviously this IAMA is useless without proof so hopefully what I sent them was enough. I am getting a lot of messages about how to prepare for BUD/S. Go to this site www.sealswcc.com and get in contact with the SEAL dive motivator. They will not cut your head off or be mean to you so you can relax. Their job is to give young kids info about how to become a SEAL. Don't be afraid to contact them, no one will show up at your house with a black van and kidnap you. EDIT 4: OK, we are green now. Sorry that took so long, I didn't know about the no scanned documents rule. I have a shit ton of work to get done first thing this morning, so I will jump back on mid day and start digging up the questions from the bottom. EDIT 5: 6:25PM PST. I am going to try to keep answering questions for as long as I can. Going to eat, I have a goal to get to the bottom of this thread. EDIT 6: I am winding this down now. I got to the bottom of the thread and answered what seemed like a shit ton of questions. I am gonna check this thread once a day for the next three days and then call it. As for this username, I am going back to my other name. I will keep this one around specifically to answer SEAL related questions as they come up. I've seen a bunch, so I think it might be handy. I will check the messages once in a while too. I got a lot of great messages from people with questions about BUD/S. I have to say I am hugely impressed by the maturity level here. I really thought I would get a lot more trolls than I did. It's been fun...good night (20JUN11 9:34PM) (yes I get to use real time not military time now that I am out).
